

Please do not allow unlimited cell phone use on planes during flights. The noise that would create will be very intrusive and give passengers no way to escape from listening to unwanted conversations. The mouth of the passenger next to me is only inches from my ear. Nothing is so important that a call can't wait until the passenger has deplaned.